Present: Heath Chasanov, Fred Duffy, Todd Fuhrmann, Pete Celiberti, Jack Holloway, Freeman Williams, Tommie Neubauer, Terre Taylor

1. Old Business:
 - a. AI/DMA Boys Basketball: Tommie explained to the committee that this is now a DIAA Board of Directors issue.
2. Matter of Cheston Boyd, St. Thomas More: The committee met with Tim Freud, AD at St. Thomas More, and Cheston Boyd, boys' basketball coach, regarding sportsmanship violations during the 2017 State Tournament. The committee voted to impose sanctions on Coach Boyd. A letter will be sent to Coach Boyd and St. Thomas More outlining the sanctions.
3. Review of 2017 spring incidents
 - a. Terre gave a brief summary of the 2017 spring incidents.
 - i. The committee voted to require Caravel Academy girls' soccer player to appear before the committee at the December due to accumulation of cards.
 - ii. The committee specifically discussed the baseball semifinals and boys lacrosse finals. No action was taken.
4. Sportsmanship Application: Revisions were distributed to committee. The committee discussed the need for significant changes to the application. The new application will be used for the 2017-2018 school year and the committee will continue to look at additional changes. The committee discussed hosting a student section showdown. Both topics will be addressed with the athletic directors at the August DAAD meeting.
5. Sportsmanship Award applications review: The committee reviewed the applications for the 2016-2017 school year. Twenty-four were submitted and twenty-two were named State Champions in Sportsmanship for the 2016-2017 school year.
